President's Message

As the lineal descendants of Revolutionary War era patriots, we are a patriotic organization of men from all walks of life who believe in respect for our great flag, respect for the constitution, service to our veterans, a belief in the importance of American history, and the continued teaching of American history. Our objective is to promote the principles of freedom and liberty for all Americans.

Our Louisiana Society and chapters are continually engaged in activities designed to recognize the achievements of youth through awards to outstanding Eagle Scouts, ROTC, and JROTC cadets. We also award winners of orations, poster, and brochure contests. State level winners can compete at the national level. We are also available to provide educational resources to schools regarding the Revolutionary War era.

Remembering our veterans, both living and dead, is achieved through a variety of service-oriented and memorial programs by our chapters. Our society is fortunate to have many veterans among our ranks.

See information regarding September Board meeting,

We engage in activities to recognize heroism by civilians as well as those who serve in law enforcement and serve as first responders. We also recognize exemplary conduct by other public servants.

We are proud to recognize individuals and businesses who engage in the proper etiquette when flying the U.S. flag. We achieve this recognition through the issuance of certificates to the awardees.

As we approach 2026 and the 250th anniversary of our nation's founding, we are currently engaged in and planning many educational and patriotic events to celebrate this monumental occasion. We are open to working with other organizations to engage in joint activities to recognize this historic anniversary.

Our society is not all work and no play. Our chapters often include social events as part of their activities which are enjoyed by our members, their families, and other guests. They often produce some interesting guest speakers.

It was an honor for me to be selected as the Louisiana Society's 94th president on April 15, 2023. My interest in the SAR began when I discovered that my 5th great grandfather served in the expedition led by General Bernardo de Galvez of Spain during the Revolutionary War era. That led me to learning more about the SAR, where I realized that the principles that guide the organization were also the principles that I believe in.

The Louisiana Society has eleven chapters located throughout the state. You can find information about our chapters on the "Our Chapters" tab of this website. If you are exploring the possibility of membership, our chapter officers are more than happy to answer any questions.

To crystallize our society's mission and reason for existence, I will leave you with a quote from one of our founding fathers, John Adams: "But a Constitution of Government once changed from Freedom, can never be restored. Liberty, once lost, is lost forever."

Best regards,

Randall Domingue

In a project led by chapter registrar, T.J. Blanchard, the Atchafalaya Chapter held an event on May 28, 2023, to pay tribute to sixteen American Revolutionary War era patriots who were members of the church parish that is now known as the Church of The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary in Plattenville. Most of the patriots honored during the event are buried in the cemetery adjacent to the church, but the exact locations of their grave sites are unknown. The patriots honored served in the Galvez expedition and lived in the area that was once known as the Valenzuela Territory. The event was attended by SAR compatriots throughout the state, the DAR state regent, and other DAR officers from Louisiana. A plaque honoring the patriots was blessed by the parish priest and hung in the rear of the church.

Deborah Sampson, portrayed by Katherine "Sue" Lee of the Loyalty Chapter DAR, told the chapter her life story at the May 27th Enemund Meullion Chapter meeting. Sampson disguised herself as a man named Robert Shurtliff to serve in the Continental Army in the Fourth Massachusetts Regiment from May 1782 to October 1783. She was assigned to Captain George Webb's Company of Light Infantry at West Point, New York. For over two years, Sampson's true identity remained undiscovered. She left a bullet in her shoulder that she received in a skirmish with Loyalists. Another time she was shot in the thigh and then extracted the bullet herself. While on a mission to Philadelphia, she fell ill with a high fever and passed out. While unconscious, the doctor discovered Shurtliff was a woman. Sampson was honorably discharged and received a pension for her military service from her native state of Massachusetts. She also went on a lecture tour across Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and New York. Her husband Benjamin Gannet successfully petitioned Congress for a pension four years after Sampson's death.

Patriot Jethro Butler Annual Wreath-Laying – Hebron Cemetery

SAR Galvez Chapter and DAR Chapters Dorcheat – Bistineau, Claiborne, and Pelican sponsored the annual wreath placing ceremony to pay respect and honor to Revolutionary Ancestor/Patriot Jethro Butler on April 18, 2023.

Patriot Jethro Butler was born in Bertie County, North Carolina in 1761. He moved to South Carolina when he was very young and he enlisted at the beginning of the Revolutionary War. He served as a private, spy, and fifer in the South Carolina Troops. He fought in numerous battles from 1775 through 1781 and was taken prisoner during an expedition to Florida. He was then commissioned a Captain in the South Carolina militia.

After the war he migrated to Louisiana via Georgia and Mississippi. He was a farmer in Claiborne Parish and died on April 9, 1841. He was survived by his children. Numerous descendants still reside in the general area.

The SAR/DAR wreath laying Program of Events is shown. The Program shows the participation of each organization. The SAR wreath was placed by a direct descendant of Jethro Butler, John Peters.

There was a total of eleven DAR and SAR members present. There were representatives present from each of the sponsoring organizations.

DAR Claiborne and Hebron Church sponsored a wreath-laying after-party at which Compatriot Clyde Hightower identified many of Jethro Butlers descendants still in the area. He also regaled the group with stories of those descendants. Thanks to the Hebron Church members Laverne Hightower and Martha Kennedy for their gracious support.

Daniel & Joseph Blake receive their SAR Membership Certificates from President Jerry Madden.

John Blake, the patriot of Daniel & Joseph Blake, was the son of Revolutionary hero Edward Blake. He was a merchant in partnership with his father importing slaves to Charleston, SC. He served as a lieutenant in the 2nd South Carolina Regiment and was one of the Continental soldiers captured by the British forces on 12 May 1780, during the attack on Charleston. He was sent to St. Augustine, Florida, on the prison ship Torbay and acted as spokesman for the prisoners of war to obtain necessary supplies which were paid for by the families of the prisoners. After his release, Blake was again imprisoned, this time on the British schooner Pack Horse, and his family was banished from Charleston for refusing to take the oath of allegiance to the British Crown. After the Revolutionary War Blake was elected to the South Carolina Assembly and was the 1st president of the State Bank of Charleston.

President Ted Brode spoke at the March meeting on the “Problems of Procurement—A Dose of Reality”, supply problems during the American Revolution.

At the April meeting, President Ted Brode shared Benjamin Franklin’s 6 reasons for using the Bow & Arrow in fighting the British in the American Revolution. They were:

1. A man may shoot as truly with a bow as with a musket.
2. He can discharge 4 arrows in the time of charging & discharging one bullet.
3. His Object is taken not from his view by the smoke on his Side.
4. A flight of arrows seen coming terrifies & disturbs the enemy.
5. An arrow striking any part of a man distracts him from battle until the arrow is removed.
6. Bows & Arrows are more easily provided everywhere than muskets & ammunition.

9 Things You May Not Know About the Declaration of Independence

1. The Declaration of Independence wasn't signed on July 4, 1776.

On July 1, 1776, the Second Continental Congress met in Philadelphia, and on the following day 12 of the 13 colonies voted in favor of Richard Henry Lee's motion for independence. The delegates then spent the next two days debating and revising the language of a statement drafted by Thomas Jefferson. On July 4, Congress officially adopted the Declaration of Independence, and as a result the date is celebrated as Independence Day. Nearly a month would go by, however, before the actual signing of the document took place. First, New York's delegates didn't officially give their support until July 9 because their home assembly hadn't yet authorized them to vote in favor of independence. Next, it took two weeks for the Declaration to be "engrossed"—written on parchment in a clear hand. Most of the delegates signed on August 2, but several—Elbridge Gerry, Oliver Wolcott, Lewis Morris, Thomas McKean and Matthew Thornton—signed on a later date. (Two others, John Dickinson and Robert R. Livingston, never signed at all.) The signed parchment copy now resides at the National Archives in the Rotunda for the Charters of Freedom, alongside the Constitution and the Bill of Rights.

2. More than one copy of the Declaration of Independence exists.

After the adoption of the Declaration of Independence, the "Committee of Five"—Thomas Jefferson, John Adams, Benjamin Franklin, Roger Sherman and Robert R. Livingston—was charged with overseeing the reproduction of the approved text. This was completed at the shop of Philadelphia printer John Dunlap. On July 5, Dunlap's copies were dispatched across the 13 colonies to newspapers, local officials and the commanders of the Continental troops. These rare documents, known as "Dunlap broadsides," predate the engrossed version signed by the delegates. Of the hundreds thought to have been printed on the night of July 4, only 26 copies survive. Most are held in museum and library collections, but three are privately owned.

3. When news of the Declaration of Independence reached New York City, it started a riot.

By July 9, 1776, a copy of the Declaration of Independence had reached New York City. With hundreds of British naval ships occupying New York Harbor, revolutionary spirit and military tensions were running high. George Washington, commander of the Continental forces in New York, read the document aloud in front of City Hall. A raucous crowd cheered the inspiring words, and later that day tore down a nearby statue of George III. The statue was subsequently melted down and shaped into more than 42,000 musket balls for the fledgling American army.

4. Eight of the 56 signers of the Declaration of Independence were born in the U.K.

While the majority of the members of the Second Continental Congress were native-born Americans, eight of the men voting for independence from Britain were born in the United Kingdom. Button Gwinnett and Robert Morris were born in England, Francis Lewis was born in Wales, James Wilson and John Witherspoon were born in Scotland, George Taylor and Matthew Thornton were born in Ireland and James Smith hailed from Northern Ireland.

5. One signer of the Declaration of Independence later recanted.

Richard Stockton, a lawyer from Princeton, New Jersey, became the only signer of the Declaration of Independence to recant his support of the revolution. On November 30, 1776, the hapless delegate was captured by the British and thrown in jail. After months of harsh treatment and meager rations, Stockton repudiated his signature on the Declaration of Independence and swore his allegiance to King George III. A broken man when he regained his freedom, he took a new oath of loyalty to the state of New Jersey in December 1777.

6. There was a 44-year age difference between the youngest and oldest signers.

The oldest signer was Benjamin Franklin, 70 years old when he scrawled his name on the parchment. The youngest was Edward Rutledge, a lawyer from South Carolina who was only 26 at the time. Rutledge narrowly beat out fellow South Carolinian Thomas Lynch Jr., just four months his senior, for the title.

7. Two additional copies of the Declaration of Independence have been found in the last 25 years.

In 1989, a Philadelphia man found an original Dunlap Broadside hidden in the back of a picture frame he bought at a flea market for $4. One of the few surviving copies from the official first printing of the Declaration, it was in excellent condition and sold for $8.1 million in 2000. A 26th known Dunlap broadside emerged at the British National Archives in 2009, hidden for centuries in a box of papers captured from American colonists during the Revolutionary War. One of three Dunlap broadsides at the National Archives, the copy remains there to this day.

8. The Declaration of Independence spent World War II in Fort Knox.

On December 23, 1941, just over two weeks after the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, the signed Declaration, together with the Constitution, was removed from public display and prepared for evacuation out of Washington, D.C. Under the supervision of armed guards, the founding document was packed in a specially designed container, latched with padlocks, sealed with lead and placed in a larger box. All told, 150 pounds of protective gear surrounded the parchment. On December 26 and 27, accompanied by Secret Service agents, it traveled by train to Louisville, Kentucky, where a cavalry troop of the 13th Armored Division escorted it to Fort Knox. The Declaration was returned to Washington, D.C., in 1944.

9. There IS something written on the back of the Declaration of Independence.

In the movie National Treasure, Nicholas Cage's character claims that the back of the Declaration contains a treasure map with encrypted instructions from the founding fathers, written in invisible ink. Unfortunately, this is not the case. There is, however, a simpler message, written upside-down across the bottom of the signed document: "Original Declaration of Independence dated 4th July 1776." No one knows who exactly wrote this or when, but during the Revolutionary War years the parchment was frequently rolled up for transport. It's thought that the text was added as a label.

SOUTHERN DISTRICT SAR MEMBERSHIP MEDAL

The Southern District SAR Membership Medal was approved, as submitted, by the 2015 SAR Medals and Awards committee at the Spring Leadership meeting in Louisville. The VPG will have medals for sale.

The Medal is available, without restriction, to any member of the Alabama, Louisiana, Mississippi and/or Tennessee societies. As planned, 100 medals were presold and ordered for production. Distribution will begin at the Southern District SAR Meeting at Congress. A new District Logo is a residual benefit.

Proceeds from the sale of the medal will support the Walter Buchanan “Buck” Meek Award Fund that recognizes the state society with the largest numerical increase of George Washington Endowment Fund members. Special thanks are extended to the District Logo/Emblem Committee who made this possible – Michael P. Schenk (MS), Chair, Thomas E. Jacks (LA), James K. Stone (TN), James (Jim) J. Thweatt (TN), Thomas Robert (Bob) Thomas (AL), and Michael (Mike) C. Wells (AL). Also, I am especially appreciative that the Valentine Sevier SAR Chapter and its Treasurer Cleo G. Hogan agreed to serve the Treasury role during initial medals sales.

LSCAR: Thanks to the members, seniors and guest who attended the State Meeting and donated items for the Veterans Community Home in Pineville. We also received a donation of Tide Pods from Procter and Gamble for each veteran. Haley F. and Hannah F. helped prepare the delivery, but due to visitor restrictions, the items were delivered by their mom to the director at the front entrance.

Nicholas Tarver of Many, LA, has dealt with cerebral palsy, epilepsy, and vision impairment since birth. How this junior at Florien High School tackles these hurdles, however, is truly inspirational. His volunteer efforts include serving as President of Children of the American Revolution (C.A.R.) for Louisiana, working with "Wreaths Across America," and serving on the national board as Chairman of the Tomb of the Unknown American Revolutionary Soldier.

Haley, Nicholas and Mary Beth attended the National Convention in April where they accepted our society's first ever GOLD MERIT AWARD! This award recognized all of our accomplishments, activities, and hard work.
