General Philemon Thomas Chapter, LASSAR Constitution Week Banquet

The September 23, 2021 Constitution Week Banquet at the Baton Rouge Country Club was well attended. Our speaker, Lt. Gov. Billy Nungesser, gave a powerful discussion on why we need to work hard to protect the U. S. Constitution particularly during the troubling times we have been experiencing in the last several years. His program was well received by our compatriots and guests.

The meal and service was top rate. If you could not attend, you missed a great "get together" with like-minded individuals. This was for many the first time they had been able to attend a special dinner with all the trimmings in over a year. All attending seemed to have a special night out after being "cooped up" for nearly two years. We had approximately 50 attendees. We hope this will be a model upon which to restart our monthly Chapter meeting as we enter 2022.

In addition to the Lt. Gov. we were honored to have representatives from other organizations at our Dinner. The National DAR Vice President General Zora Olsson; the LaSSAR: President Jim Schneider, Secretary Jeffrey Nolen, Assist. Sect. Robert Villere, Chancellor GPT's John McKay, past state President GPT's Henry Grace; and the Children of the American Revolution (CAR) State President Michael Dunlap attending and bringing greetings from their organizations. We were also honored to present cash awards to our 2021 Oration contest winner Jackson Howard of Baton Rouge who placed 2nd in the SAR National Oration Contest for 2021.

GPT President, Mitch Pratt is awarding a Certificate of Appreciation and a book including names of patriots from Louisiana who participated in the American Revolution to our speaker Lt. Gov. Nungesser.

John Honeyman, SAR Patriot #: P-184298 and DAR #: A057520

Submitted by James Edward Mitchell

Nat'l. No. 165184

State Society: Louisiana SAR

Chapter: James Huey, Ouachita Parish, West Monroe

Born 1729 in County Armagh, Ulster, Ireland, John Honeyman was a son of Scottish parents. Honeyman was characterized as a Somerset County, New Jersey (NJ) farmer with little formal schooling, live stockman and farmer after age 29. In 1758, he was conscripted by the British Army and transplanted to North America via Canada, serving on Maj. Gen'l. James Wolfe's (1727-1759) staff. Wolfe died in 1759 at the Plains of Abraham in Quebec, fighting the French; source, Find A Grave Memorial #: 7699297.

John was discharged and migrated to the American colony where he married 1st, Mary Henry in Sep 1764 at Philadelphia. Children born from this marriage were recorded as sons, John Honeyman, Jr., b. 1769; James, b. 1776 and daughters, Jane; Margaret; Mary; Eleanor and Sarah. Wolfe had advised Honeyman to locate and contact a Colonial American associate, Cmdr., George Washington. George Washington was acquainted with John from the British fighting in Quebec, when Honeyman was selected by Maj Gen'l. Wolfe as a trusted Life-Guard. After 1759 Siege of Quebec, Wolfe had told Honeyman that he'd soon be honorably discharged. Wolfe suggested before his death that (Colonel) Washington would make an excellent contact if Honeyman wished to relocate to the American colony. By 1770, he had resettled to a farming tract at Somerset, NJ, where he would confidentially agree to furnish vital intelligence serving Cmdr., George Washington's decisive battle of Trenton held on 26 Dec 1776; see, Sons of the American Revolution, West Virginia Society (SAR) Application For Membership approved 15 Sep 1943 for William Herbert Childs, Nat'l. Number 62640, State No. 575.

Bruce Chadwick's Copyright 2004 book, George Washington's War published by Sourcebooks, Inc., at Naperville, Illinois noted that British Army routing of the Continental Army at Harlem Heights and White Plains underscored the loss of five thousand Americans killed or captured during the New York campaign. So, affected were the Americans that Gen'l. Washington moved south across NJ to encamp on the opposite bank of the Delaware river at Washington Crossing facing the combined British forces led by William Howe and Lord Charles Cornwallis. Chadwick described the frigid, snowy Christmas of 1776, and Washington's crude hospitals (see: Thompson-Neely House) set along the Southbank of the Delaware a few miles from his Washington Crossing HQ. Here, Washington and several Life-Guard collected intelligence by scouting Honeyman's farm at Somerset County. Chadwick wrote that Washington decided to strategize an American assault upon the Hessian barracks commanded by Colonel Johann Rall after derelictions of leadership were revealed by Honeyman, still affecting his brogue, to gain Rall's trust on numerous visits to supply the barracks with beef and farm produce.

On pgs 10 and 11, Chadwick recorded, "Now when details on Hessian daily routines were needed most," Honeyman confidentially furnished information to Washington relative to Hessian troops, Ralls' thinking, derelictions, approach roads to Trenton and locations to cross the river.

Separately, a well noted, retired CIA case officer Kenneth A. Daigler documented in Chapter 7 of his book Spies, Patriots, and Traitors: American Intelligence in the Revolutionary War, Copyright 2014, Georgetown Univ., Press, Washington, DC, pgs 128-130 and 244, "the role of the American spy John Honeyman must also be considered." The oral story of Honeyman's actions is quite detailed, fits in well with the information known about the tactical situation at Trenton. Washington had the experience and determination to effectively conduct from an intelligence officer's prospective, an assault. However, considering Washington's strong sense of operational security to protect his sources and methods of gathering intelligence, I do not find the lack of supporting government or army records surprising. Daigler submitted that in late December, Honeyman was "captured" and taken to Gen'l. Washington, where he furnished his complete intelligence report on the enemy at Trenton. In addition to incorporating this intelligence into a plan of attack, Washington also instructed Honeyman to escape and report back to Johann Rall about his capture, escape and that from his observation the American army was inactive in quarters for the Christmas period. Honeyman did so, and departed barracks at Trenton and returned to his farm. He joined his family at Griggstown, but remained under suspicion of Tory sentiments until the end of the war.

Honeyman's wife, Mary Henry died on 24 Jun 1801 and John re-married in 1804, a widow Elizabeth Estel (aka Estelle) Burrows. At age 93, John Honeyman's death was recorded on 18 Aug 1822 and his burial was mapped at Lamington Presbyterian Church Cemetery, Lamington Road, Bedminster, Somerset County, NJ, 07921 at GPS -Latitude: 40.6607, Longitude: -74.7188; source, Find A Grave Memorial #: 7699297

John Marshall was born at home in Fauquier County (Co,) Virginia on 24 Sep 1755. He was the 4th son born to Thomas Marshall [(1730- 1802), SAR Patriot #: P-241920] and Mary Randolph Keith (1737-1809), recorded married during 1754 at Fauquier /fɔ: 'kiər/ County (Co,) formed 1758 from Prince William Co, Virginia (VA); sources, U.S. and International Marriage Records, 1560-1900, source no. 1371.101; family group sheet, FGSE listed as parents and also, Biological Directory of the U.S. Congress, 1774-2005 /John Marshall.

In Jul 1775, after Royal Governor John Dunmore had removed the Virginia colony's powder stores and abandoned the capital at Williamsburg, several revolutionary conventions had met at Richmond for the purpose of forming a provisional government headed by a "Committee of Safety." The results were the authorization and creation of 2 regts., of regular troops recruited by Cols. Patrick Henry and William Woodford and 16 bttns. of minutemen for defense purposes against British invasion and insurrection. Major Thomas Marshall of Fauquier Co, was selected to the Gen'l Staff of Col. Lawrence Taliaferro of Orange Co, VA. Maj. Marshall was accompanied by a son, John Marshall, age 19 appointed as Lieut. in a company led by Capt. William Pickett; source, An 18th Century Perspective: Culpeper County compiled by Mary Stevens Jones and publ. by the Culpeper Historical Society, Inc., Culpeper, VA, 1976, Chapter II, 'All Fine Fellows and Well Armed' pgs 15-19. During the 2nd Continental Congress held Sep 1776, this body of VA Militia was attached to the newly organized 11th VA Regt. raised for the Continental Army.

On 26 Jan 1833, John Marshall (4th US Chief Justice) appeared within the WDC, District Court. He petitioned for Pension Application S.5731 that he was age 77, and a resident of Richmond, VA. He gave an oath that he had entered the military service of the United Colonies during Jul 1776 in Capt. William Blackwell's company raised for Fauquier Co, VA Militia Regt. A part of the combined Fauquier, Culpeper, Orange Co, VA Regt., had previously been marched by Col Daniel Morgan to defend Washington Heights in Nov 1776 where it was surrendered, before he had joined.

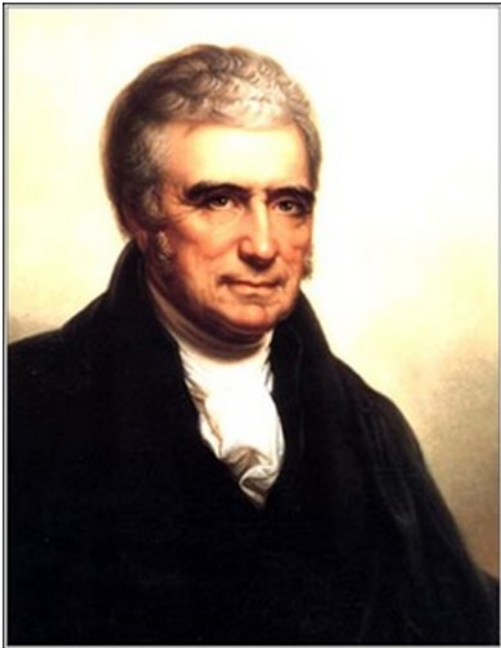

In early 1777, his company was attached to the new 11th VA Regt., Continental Army commanded by Cols. Daniel Morgan and Hans Christian Febiger, 2nd VA Regt. The deponent stated, he recalled being commissioned a Capt. during May 1777 while in [2nd Division, 3rd VA Bgde., (BrigGen'l William Woodford) 11th VA Regt.] continental service. He recalled engagements in the battles of Brandywine [11 Sep 1777], German Town [4 Oct 1777], and Monmouth [28 Jun 1778], and in some skirmishes, marching in Maryland, Delaware, Pennsylvania, NJ and NY; source, <http://revwarapps.org/s5731.pdf> i.e., Southern Campaigns

Prior to John Marshall's widely known diplomatic and political achievements, he visited Williamsburg, VA where George Wythe welcomed him to enroll at the College of William and Mary to practice law. He was admitted to the bar on 28 Aug 1780. John Marshall, often visited Wythe's home and study like area scholars Geo. Washington, Thos. Jefferson and James Monroe; source, I Am Murdered: George Wythe..., the Killing That Shocked a New Nation, Copyright 2009, Bruce Chadwick, publ. by John Wiley & Sons, Inc. He resigned his army commission during 1781, practiced law in Fauquier Co., and was elected to serve in the VA House of Delegates at Richmond.

At age 27, John's marriage to Mary Willis Ambler was recorded on 11 Jan 1783 at Henrico Co, an original shire; source, Marriage Bonds of Henrico Co, VA 1782-1853 compiled by Michael Pollock, Copyright 1984, publ. by Genealogical Publ., Co., Inc., Balt., MD, pg 108. His wife, Mary, died in Richmond, Henrico Co, during 1831 and the couple was survived by numerous adult children. Mary Ambler's parents were Jacque (aka Jacquelin) Ambler and Rebecca L. SOUTHERN DISTRICT SAR MEMBERSHIP MEDAL

The Southern District SAR Membership Medal was approved, as submitted, by the 2015 SAR Medals and Awards committee at the Spring Leadership meeting in Louisville. The VPG will have medals for sale.

The Medal is available, without restriction, to any member of the Alabama, Louisiana, Mississippi and/or Tennessee societies. As planned, 100 medals were presold and ordered for production. Distribution will begin at the Southern District SAR Meeting at Congress. A new District Logo is a residual benefit.

Proceeds from the sale of the medal will support the Walter Buchanan “Buck” Meek Award Fund that recognizes the state society with the largest numerical increase of George Washington Endowment Fund members. Special thanks are extended to the District Logo/Emblem Committee who made this possible – Michael P. Schenk (MS), Chair, Thomas E. Jacks (LA), James K. Stone (TN), James (Jim) J. Thweatt (TN), Thomas Robert (Bob) Thomas (AL), and Michael (Mike) C. Wells (AL). Also, I am especially appreciative that the Valentine Sevier SAR Chapter and its Treasurer Cleo G. Hogan agreed to serve the Treasury role during initial medals sales.

On Saturday January 29, 2022 members of the L.S.C.A.R. gathered in Denham Springs, LA for the 2022 State Conference. State President Michael Dunlap presided.

Highlights of the meeting were hearing reports from officers, chairmen, and a few of the societies present. Special guest of the meeting was Senior National Vice President of the Eastern Region brought greetings on behalf of the National Society.

During Michael's term he chose the project "Love is Action" tying together his love of sports and community service to show our veterans how much we love them, while keeping in theme with the National Society's theme- "Keeping Everyone on the Move." Over the past year the L.S.C.A.R. has held fundraisers benefitting the Oscar Mike Foundation- we free dress Fridays in local schools and a virtual 5K FunRun. In 2021 L.S.C.A.R. and its supporters raised $1,000 for the Oscar Mike Foundation.

After all reports were read members learned about making samplers, wrote letters to penpals at KDS, one of the Mountain Schools, learned about a 3 point hat, and played American Revolution Trivia. There was even an appearance of a minuteman!

The Ladies Auxiliary continues to grow and now has 62 members in 10 of the 11 chapters in the state. We appreciate the efforts of both the men and the women who continue to champion our cause. We would love to have the ladies of the Benjamin Tennille chapter in Monroe join us in our mission to support the LASSAR Youth Awards Programs. The Silent Auction is our major source of funding. Our last donation of $3000 went a long way towards the total expenses of $3800 in 2021.

The January Board of Directors Meeting was held on January 29 in Lafayette. We discussed plans for our Silent Auction at the Annual State Meeting in April. The auction tables will be set up early on Saturday morning, so that the men will have a chance to bid before, during and after their meeting. We have some wonderful items that will be up for bid! It is my personal goal to have all 11 chapters donate something for the 2022 auction. So far we have 10 chapters participating. THERE IS STILL TIME TO REACH 100% CHAPTER PARTICIPATION!

We are excited that the LASSAR Annual State Meeting will be held at Nottoway Plantation in White Castle, LA. The Ladies Auxiliary will meet on Saturday, April 9, at 10:00 AM. The Silent Auction will take place at the Banquet that same evening. A special Thank You to Sarah and Bradley Hayes for making the arrangements for a weekend at this beautiful venue!

See you at Nottoway Plantation!

Yours in Patriotic Service,

NOTTOWAY PLANTATION – the largest antebellum mansion in the South. The very name evokes a time and place that is “gone with the wind” – a home so grand that the local town (“White Castle”) is named for it. There are 64 rooms and 53,000 square feet in the main house alone – that’s over an acre of floor space – plus 31 acres of luxurious gardens and grounds with 40 separate guest rooms and cottages. A multimillion dollar renovation has made the property a one-of-a-kind destination with pools, tennis courts, restaurants, a gift shop and museum + a salon and fitness center, as well. The best part of it all is that for the 2022 Louisiana Society of the Sons of the American Revolution annual state meeting, we will have it all to ourselves!

Due to COVID restrictions, the resort has been closed to regular visitors and is currently only available for special events, such as weddings and corporate functions. The loss of tourist traffic is our gain. Imagine renting out an entire first-class resort for your own private party. That is essentially what the LASSAR has done. The weekend at Nottoway will be one you won’t forget. Imagine this time as a retreat away from the hustle and bustle and pandemic pandemonium. Enjoy a bucolic get away in the country where you can leave the city life behind and spend time in an intimate setting with fellow compatriots.

Given the isolation of the resort, we are billing the annual meeting as an all-inclusive mini-vacation. Meals are included as part of your stay (although hors d’oeuvres will be served at the Friday night reception, attendees may want to stop for a light supper during the drive to Nottoway; although the bar will be open downstairs, no other meals will be provided that evening). For this reason, the prices may be a little higher than annual meetings in years past but, keep in mind, the costs include room AND board. A schedule for the weekend is as follows:

Friday night Welcome Reception and Early Registration (6:00-8:00 p.m. in the Main House)

Featuring tray-passed hors d’oeuvres, sparkling wine, and non-alcoholic punch.

Hors d’Oeuvres Selection:

Cold Bruschetta with Roma Tomatoes, Fresh Mozzarella, and Fresh Basil (vegetarian)

Jumbo Boiled Shrimp with Spicy Cocktail Sauce

Savory Crawfish Pies

Beef Carpaccio on Crostini with Horseradish Aioli

A cash bar will be available during the reception and afterwards the downstairs bar will remain open for continued camaraderie and conviviality.*

Saturday Meeting (in the Cypress Ballroom)

BREAKFAST (& Registration): Sliced Fresh Fruit Display with Assorted Yogurts, Assorted Pastries, Muffins & Croissants, Sausage Biscuits, Ham and Cheese Croissants, Water, Assorted Juices, Hot Tea, and Freshly Brewed Coffee (8:00-9:00 a.m.)

MID-MORNING BREAK: Bottled Water, Assorted Sodas, Trail Mix, and Assorted Granola Bars

LUNCH BUFFET: Selection of Sliced Bread, Garden Salad with Assorted Dressing, Assortment of Baked Ham, Roasted Turkey Breast and Slow-Cooked Roast Beef, Assortment of Cheese & Condiments, Assorted Chips, Chef's Choice Dessert

MID-AFTERNOON BREAK: Bottled Water, Assorted Sodas, Homemade Cookies, and Fresh Baked Brownies

 GUIDED HOUSE TOURS OF THE MANSION WILL ALSO BE AVAILABLE (TIME TBD) – however, tours are a separate charge (at $13.00 per person)

Saturday Night Banquet (in the Cypress Ballroom)

Cocktail Hour with Cash bar (6:00-7:00 p.m.)

Plated Three-Course Dinner (seating at 7:00 p.m.)

Spinach Salad (Baby Spinach, fresh strawberries, and sweet & spicy pecans, tossed in a citrus vinaigrette)

*Choice of Blackened Gulf Fish (fresh Gulf fish blackened with Cajun spices & butter) OR Chicken Breaux Bridge (sautéed chicken breast topped with crawfish étouffée, served over rice)

White Chocolate Bread Pudding for Dessert

LODGING

One of the best parts of the resort is in the variety of accommodations available. Want to make it a romantic weekend stay in an antebellum B&B? Rooms are available in the main house. Want to bring the kids and make it a family vacation? Several of the cottages have adjoining rooms and multi-bed suites. Want to go solo and/or split a room with another compatriot? That option is available, too! We have reserved a 22-unit block of rooms with something for everyone. Choices are as follows:

Room Type	Rate	Friday 4/8/2022	Saturday 4/9/2022	Sunday 4/10/2022

Finally, another feature of this year's annual meeting which is a definite plus is the location. Nottoway is centrally located and fairly close to the majority of our chapters. The estimated drive times for in-state attendees are as follows:
